Housing Court: Policies, Procedures, Update and a "Gem"

Learn about what goes on in Kansas City, Missouri housing court. It is very different then other courts and the cases are very different. There will also be an added "gem" of an emphasis on warrantless searches by inspectors.

Hon. A. Wayne Cagle, Jr., 16th Judicial Circuit Court of Missouri, Jackson County

When & How to Try a Traffic Case

Your client may not always be offered the best deal based on a number of factors, including criminal/driving record. Do you take the plea, take the case to trial or enter a technical not guilty? The speakers will address when you should take your case to trial, how to obtain discovery and presenting your case. Also covered will be when to take your case out of Municipal Court, the procedure, who is on the other side, and the pros and cons of going this route.

F. Coulter deVries, deVries & Associates, PC (Missouri perspective)
John E. Harvell, John E. Harvell, PA (Kansas perspective)

The Ethics of Plea Negotiations and "Please" to the Court

It may be easier to accept the plea offer from the prosecutor, but is it the right thing to do? If the plea offer does not seem appropriate you do have other options. The speaker will discuss the ethics of plea negotiations and if and when it is appropriate to plea straight up to the Court.

Howard L. Lotven, Howard L. Lotven, PC

Watch for an advanced topics in municipal court seminar coming in November!
