Speaker: William "Clay" Crawford, *Foland, Wickens, Eisfelder,
Roper & Hofer PC*

You mention to someone you just met at a cocktail party that you are an attorney. Without warning, she tells you the details of her son's DUI case asked you for your advice . . . Some uses the "Contact Us" link on your firm's web site to send you a message filled with confidential facts about his pending case . . . Do these encounters create attorney-client relationships and are these communications privileged?
