Ethics & Malpractice Risks for the New Millennium

Co-sponsored by KCMBA & The Bar Plan Mutual Insurance Company

Lantz Welch Education Center,
KCMBA Headquarters,
1125 Grand Blvd., Ste. 400,
Kansas City, MO 64106

With the unprecedented rise in the severity of malpractice claims, it is no longer reasonable for lawyers to approach malpractice prevention as merely a desirable way of practicing, but to understand that it is a necessary ingredient for today's successful lawyer. In the constantly changing legal world of professionalism and malpractice avoidance, the only way to protect yourself is through recognition of this fact of life and adapt your practice to these new realities.

This seminar doesn't bring you theory. You'll learn from the knowledge gained by going inside firms who thought they were doing it right, and you'll hear, in their own interviews and words, from the lawyers who defend lawyers, bringing their real-world experience to this critical aspect of your practice.

About the Presenter

Christian A. Stiegemeier is Executive Vice President of The Bar Plan Foundation, and Director of Risk Management of The Bar Plan Mutual Insurance Company. Chris received his B.A. in Communications from Southeast Missouri State University and his J.D. from The Saint Louis University

School of Law. Prior to joining The Bar Plan, Chris was in private practice concentrating in the areas of domestic relations, criminal law, and appellate practice.
