Most lawyers can remember the clients they have had over the years who presented countless obstacles, refused to conform to the norms of behavior, standards and expectations, and with whom our relationship was (or is) enormously troubled. This program is identify certain personality and emotional behaviors that typify four categories of such clients and provide strategies and specific approaches that are effective with each. While this program is perhaps of most interest to those in mediation or family law and general practice, nearly any attorney with clients will benefit.

Presenters: Larry R. Rute, Partner and Co-Founder, Associates in Dispute Resolution LLC
Patrick R. Nichols, Partner, Associates in Dispute Resolution LLC
