This is a interactive seminar between the speakers, the moderator, and the audience, done in a "Phil Donohue" format that has been very well received by all participants. The Art of Advocacy series of seminars started in 2001 with the impact of the "Daily News" on juries and proceeded through Voir Dire, Opening Statements, Direct Examination, Cross Examination, Closing Arguments, and is ending in 2008 with Post Trial Motions and Appeals. Next year we will start over with a new panel of speakers dealing with the impact of the "Daily News" on juries and proceed through each of the phases of the trial as we have previously done over the last six years.
