E-discovery and Computer Forensics - Preparing for Litigation in the Digital Age

E-discovery and computer forensics both deal with digital evidence, but they're not the same. This presentation will focus on the differences between the two analysis processes, what steps need to be taken to correctly preserve the data and the resources you can draw on to help you wade through this complex environment.

Lara Dickey Lewis

Intellectual Property for the Legal Professional

This session will focus on what every legal professional should know about intellectual property. In particular, we will discuss the following topics: (1) Trademark Law (Types of Trademarks, Determining Whether a Trademark is Entitled to Protection, Acquisition of Trademark Rights, Federal Registration of Trademarks); (2) Trade Secrets (Rights of a Trade Secret Owner, Trade Secret Termination, Trade Secrets vs. Patents); and (3) Copyright Law.

Stephen B. Millin, Jr.

Investigating and Interviewing of Fact Witnesses

Eyewitness testimony has a significant impact on the outcome of trials and trial negotiation, in both civil and criminal cases. In large part, juries depend on eyewitness testimony to determine the outcome of cases. Learn how to investigate and interview fact witnesses to advance your case.

Brenda Rieke

Notary Public: How to Obtain a Commission and Avoid Losing It

In this session we will learn the ins and outs of becoming and remaining a notary public, along with problems and stories from the Missouri Notary Commissions office.
