Moderator: Christine Graham, Chair, KCMBA Probate and Estate Planning Committee

Massive changes have been made to federal, Missouri and Kansas Medicaid laws over the past year. Advice that made good planning sense in the past may now have devastating consequences, both for the client and for the lawyer who gave the advice. Even the requirements for closing a probate estate are now different. Did you know that incorrectly establishing a special needs trust for a minor in Kansas may actually disqualify the minor from Medicaid? This presentation will review the key changes attorneys need to be aware of so advice given to clients will be current and correct.

Speaker: Craig C. Reaves, Reaves Law Firm, PC
