

LEAP Announces 2012 Mardi Gras King and Queen

The Foundation for Lawyers Encouraging Academic Performance (LEAP) has announced its King and Queen, Gary and Anita Robb for 2012. LEAP has also elected its officers for 2012: Laura Tyler, President; Hon. Christine Sill-Rogers and Victoria Schatz, Vice Presidents; Janeen DeVries, Secretary; Paul Redfearn, Treasurer and Mark Parrish, President Emeritus.

LEAP is a not-for-profit foundation established in 1994 to provide needy children with mentoring services. It is the local legal profession's designated beneficiary and a unique, joint professional effort comprised of the Kansas City Metropolitan Bar Association, the Eastern Jackson County Bar Association, the Association for Women Lawyers of Greater Kansas City, Lawyers Association of Kansas City, Jackson County

Bar Association, Hispanic Bar Association, the Asian American Bar Association, Kansas City Lesbian, Gay, and Allied Lawyers, and the Association of Corporate Counsel, Mid-America Chapter.

Join us at our annual luncheon to be held on February 21, 2012, as we cross the million dollar mark in funds raised by LEAP. Operation Breakthrough is currently LEAP's primary recipient. LEAP's lawyers and judges serve as mentors, reading to the children and helping with homework; its cash donations go towards supplies, equipment and personnel. This year, Anita and Gary Robb of Robb & Robb, LLC, will be crowned Queen and King. To make a donation, attend the luncheon or to receive additional information, please contact Jen Kiper at (816) 474-4322 or e-mail jkipper@kcmba.org. □
